E Smethport Wavers on Annexation When Real Showdown is On

Citfzens' Committee Members Fail to Accept Conopus Club Invite to Approve or Disapprove Plan; Agree to Refer Proposal to Civic Improvement Association.

At the regular meeting of the Conopus club at the Grand Central hotel, Monday noon, E. A. Studholme, chairman of the committee having to do with the proposed annexation plan with East Smethport, reported that, following a conference with some 20 citizens of East Smethport last week, enthusiasm appeared at such a low ebb that not one of East Smethport's citizens present at the conference would express himself on the project when asked to do so. Indeed, the East Smethportians asked for time to consult with the East Smethport civic improvement association, which they promised to do at an early date.

Thus annexation plans are up in the air. Although the fact was made plain that East Smethport would benefit by electric lights and sewers, better school facilities, sewers, fire and police protection and all other advantages which the borough enjoys at a cost of between two and three mills above their present rate of taxation, while an additional 200 to 300 population would represent the borough's gain East Smethport's citizens remained unmoved. They just couldn't express an opinion without another consultation with their civic association.

Other business before the meeting was the designation of Monday evening, December 11, as Ladies' Night, and the appointment of a committee headed by E. G. Potter to arrange a special program for the entertainment of the ladies on that occasion.

Nominations of officers for the ensuing year were made by the nominating committee, as follows:

President—H. H. Redfield.
Vice President—E. A. Studholme
Secretary—H. J. Rice.
Treasurer—P. S. Cressman.
Directors—H. S. Rubin, S. L. Fry, Russell Lindsley, C. R. Long, G. C. Douglass.

Following reading of the nominations, the committee on resolutions, consisting of Judge J. W. Bouton, H. H. Redfield and E. G. Potter, reported as follows:

Resolved, that the Smethport Conopus Club records its profound respect for the late Thomas H. Purtle and its sense of great loss through his death.

He set an example as one who gave us a clear and vigorous presentation of his own position.

He always stood for progressive ideas for the betterment of the community.

The Smethport Conopus Club extends to Mrs. Purtle and the members of the family their deep sympathy and join with them in mourning the loss not only of a splendid member of our club, but an excellent citizen.

Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the family of our deceased member.

MANY TESTIFY TO REALITY OF DIVINE HEAL'NG

The people of East Smethport and vicinity who have been taking advantage of their opportunities to attend the great evangelistic services at the East Smethport church the past week have enjoyed a treat indeed.

According to Rev. Mr. Paug, of the United Brethren churches of East Smethport, Farmers Valley and Coryville, the religious organizations supporting the movement,

EVANGELIST WILLIAMS

Rev. and Mrs. O. E. Williams, who are conducting the evangelistic meetings, have been giving their very best talents to the work. Accustomed to speak to hundreds and thousands, they have neither stinted nor held back because of the smallness of the church or the fewness of the people. The old-time gospel is being preached with Pentecostal power; the efficacy of the blood, the authority of the Scriptures and the blessed ministry of Jesus are continually held up to the people, while the various theories and doctrines are enforced by incidents and experiences from their own wide experiences as traveling evangelists. Sin is fearlessly denounced wherever it is found, whether it is in the church, in popular amusements, or in the open violation of the laws of God or man. The cigaret-smoking, booze-histing, demoralizing fellows and the low-down, sneaking, law-defying bootleggers come in for their share of vitriolic denunciation.

Sunday afternoon a service was held for the sick and a sermon on divine healing was preached. At the close of the services a number of people knelt at the altar to be anointed and prayed for the recovery of health. In the evening many testimonies of healing experienced that day or previously were given. Several came to the altar seeking salvation.

The meetings will continue, afternoon and evening, this week, with three meetings on Sunday. The evangelists request that all come before the chance has gone

REV. FATHER DONAHUE, HERMIT'S FRIEND, GETS BULK OF HIS ESTATE

Under the terms of the will of the late John Magner, hermit, filed November 27, Rev. Father P. J. Donahue of St. Elizabeth's church, is made the principal beneficiary of all property, real, personal and mixed, of which Magner died seized. Father Donahue also has been named executor of the estate.

In a way the Magner estate—if his holdings were of the proportions of an estate—consists of will not be known definitely until an inventory is made. Rumors of a valuation approximating $70,000 to $80,000 are rife; also that Magner was possessed of considerable wealth in the form of bonds. Visible holdings, however, consist of some 120 acres of farm land, together with house, barn and farming utensils in the Gifford Hollow district. Magner's action in willing the great bulk of his property to Rev. Father Donahue, however, is regarded as an act of reward to one who had been a close friend and advisor for years.

The will filed with John B. Eastman, register of wills, the past week follows:

I, John Magner, of Smethport, Pa., being of sound mind, memory and understanding, declare this my last will and testament.

First—I give, devise and bequeath to each of my heirs the sum of $1 each.

Second—I give, devise and bequeath to Rev. P. J. Donahue of Smethport, Pa., the rest of my estate, real, personal and mixed, on condition that all my just debts and funeral expenses are paid. Whatever is over and above expenses is to be disposed of at the will of the executor.

Third—I appoint as executor, Rev. P. J. Donahue of Smethport, Pa.

In witness whereof, I, John Magner, have to this my last will set my hand and seal this the 18th day of November A. D. 1922.

(Signed) John Magner.

WATER FAMINE MENACES ALL OF KEYSTONE STATE; IMMEDIATE VICINITY HIT

Reports from all parts of the state are to the effect that Pennsylvania is experiencing one of the worst droughts in its history. Although Smethport itself has proved exceedingly lucky, manifold evidences of water scarcity are so near at hand that unless the snow melts within the next few days, a great deal of suffering is bound to result. Free flowing springs and ever dependable wells in and near Smethport never were so low as now, while reports from neighboring boroughs and hamlets are of such nature as to cause alarm.

In the state generally, Johnstown, once the scene of one of the most disastrous floods on record, now is the most acutely affected by the dry spell which dates to last July. Word from Johnstown is to the effect that if there is no relief in the next three days, the Cambria Steel company would be compelled to reduce operations fifty per cent., throwing 8,000 men out of employment.

The situation also is becoming serious in the coal region where reduction and in some cases suspension of operations seem imminent. Many collieries already have taken unusual precaution to conserve their water supplies. Some small mines already have suspended operations.

The wheat crop, it is said, will suffer most seriously unless there is rain or snow fall very soon. The winter's snows, it is believed, will prevent any damage to next spring's fruit crop.

Mereorologist authorities in Harrisburg say that the drought is the most serious experienced in this state since 1909.

As yet the larger cities have not had the seriousness of the situation impressed upon them as they have in the rural sections where both streams and wells are growing dry.

FINDS CAR BURNED UP ON RETURN FROM HUNT

Leaving his fine Dodge car by the roadside in Digel Hollow, while exploring the woods for game last Friday, W. S. Palmer of Smethport was given the surprise of his life when upon his return to the road he found his car a mass of twisted iron, steel and embers. During his absence the car had caught fire and went up in smoke. Although Mr. Palmer is somewhat at a loss concerning the cause, he believes that it was started from a short circuit.

KILLED A WILDCAT.

While Otto Engstrom, Lars Johnson, and Milton Engstrom were hunting, Saturday, Lars Johnson shot and killed a wild cat weighing eleven pounds.

FIRE SIREN IS HEARD FROM 6 MILES AWAY.

The new siren for the fire department was given a thorough test Monday by fire officials and judging from the noise it made, there is little doubt of its acceptance. In order to determine its carrying power one of he officials journeyed east to Farmers Valley, where, he said, it distinctly could be heard. Manager Fred Hungerville of the Smethport garage, who was in Ormsby at the time of the test, heard the siren very distinctly at that point, distant six miles, sufficient to prove that the device was performing its work as advertised. In all probability the siren will be accepted by the department.

The McKean County Miner has a greater circulation than any other weekly newspaper in McKean County.

Couple See Panther In Fight With Dogs on Smethport Road

Buffalo Man and Wife See Novel Spectacle Near Rew City, Monday; Wild Animal Knocks Canine Sprawling; Revolver Shots End Hostilities; Cat Makes Getaway.

A. S. Botworth and wife of Buffalo, N. Y., enroute from Buffalo to DuBois, Monday, stopped off in Smethport just long enough to relate a story of witnessing an enormous wildcat backing away from three large dogs at a point just this side of Rew City.

"We were approaching a little thicket by the roadside," said Mr. Bosworth, "when our attention was attracted by noises of barks, spits and snarls. As our car came flush with the thicket we were surprised to see an enormous cat-like creature backing away from three dogs, which seemingly were endeavoring to encircle it, not, however, without the exercise of considerable caution. It was the largest wild cat I had ever seen. Strange to relate, neither cat nor dogs paid any attention to my car. Evidently they had more serious business on hand. Driving the car some twenty yards ahead, we stopped to witness the spectacle. Just as we did so, the largest of the three dogs rushed the cat, only to receive a blow that sent him sprawling a distance of several feet. As the dog picked himself up he cried as if he were hurt, and we observed that the other dogs lost considerable of their courage and backed away. At this stage of the proceeding I concluded to take a hand myself. Seizing my revolver and taking hasty aim, I blazed away at the cat, firing three shots, none of which touched the brute by a mile. The noise of the gun, however, served to freighten the animal and it quickly turned into the thicket and disappeared, the dogs following at what I considered a safe distance. When we resumed our journey, my wife, who was brought up in the woods of Maine, informed me that the animal was more like a panther than a wild cat, although it was not as large as some panthers she had seen. However, the creature was fully as large as a medium sized hound, and judging from its powerful fore-legs, there was right enough in its body for an even dozen hounds.

What puzzled both Mrs. Bosworth and myself, however, was the appearance of the wild animal near the roadside in broad daylight. Wildcats and panthers being nocturnal, we were surprised to find this specimen out of bed at the noon hour fighting dogs. But we are inclined to think that the dogs discovered its lair and forced it into the open. In any event there's a goodly sized wild animal prowling this vicinity, and from the fact that he's sleek and fat, I take it that his pelt is well worth the time of any skilled hunter."

Reports of a panther having been seen at various points to the north and east of Smethport have been current for some time. In fact a story to this effect was conveyed in a special telegram from Kane to the Philadelphia North American for last Sunday. The special contained the information that many old hunters believe that an exceptionally large animal of the panther type is roaming the McKean county woods between Bradford and Cole Creek and several declare they have seen its trail and tell of the marvelous leaps made by the panther as indicatog by the tracks.

HEROIC WILCOX YOUTH SAVES FATHER, MOTHER, BROTHER FROM FLAMES.

Awakened from sleep by crackling flames and a smoke-filled room, Sunday morning, Bayard Samuelson, Wilcox youth, leaped from his bed, found the whole house in flames and immediately rushed to the rescue of his aged parents and another brother, who were sleeping on the first floor. He found them in their beds so overcome by smoke that he was obliged to carry them out one by one to the outer air where they were revived. The house and contents including the clothing of every member of the family was destroyed. Three hundred dollars also went up in smoke.

The heroism of the youth was remarkable. Thinly clad, he fought his way through flames and smoke three times, each time bringing a member of the family outside.

SCHOOL'S OUT! HURRAH! HOLIDAY VACATION TO RUN 10 DAYS THIS YEAR.

The public schools of Smethport closed Wednesday afternoon for the observance of Thanksgiving day and will not reopen until Monday.

Friday, December 22, is the date set for the closing of the schools for the Holiday vacation, which will continue until Tuesday, January 2, thus giving the pupils ten days in which to disport themselves.

CHILD SUFFERS INJURY.

George VanDusen, eleven year old son of Mrs. Laura VanDusen, the efficient teacher of the seventh grade in the Smethport school, was painfully injured Tuesday evening while coasting on Mechanic street. He fell from his sled and drove a nail some distance into his wrist. At the present time the child is doing well.

The only way most people ever have any chickens is to count them before they are hatched.

MILK SCARCITY WIDE IN SCOPE DAIRYMEN SAY

Members attending a meeting of the Fourteenth district of the Dairymen's league, which includes Cattaraugus county, N. Y., and McKean county, Pa., held in Salamanca, Saturday afternoon to consider the present acute milk shortage had their worst fears confirmed following an address by A. L. Milks of Little Valley, who stated that the pronounced shortage of milk is country-wide in scope and explained that cheese and butter factories in which surplus milk from the league was used, were being closed down. A large number of cows had been killed, he said, because they were infected with tuberculosis and this, in addition to other causes, had shortened the milk supply considerably.

News that the Dairymen's league is buying the big Nestles company's condensories for the reason that the Nestles have determined to quit business was imparted at the meeting; also, that the league is now the third largest canner of milk in America.

Report on the league's finances show that they are in excellent condition.

Mother's Cook Book

There is no age limit. Many people do not learn how to live until they have passed fifty. Gladstone, at eighty-six, was brilliant; Goethe, at eighty-four, found life full of interest. You are never old until you think you are.

SUMMER SALAD DRESSINGS

DURING the warm weather salads appeal to the appetite and furnish the right kind of warm-weather food. One may vary the three standard salad dressings even beyond the fifty-seven varieties.

French dressing, which is the simplest of all dressings, is prepared with oil, vinegar or lemon juice with seasonings. The proportion of oil varies with the taste for the average taste four tablespoonfuls of oil to one of sharp vinegar is considered about right. Season with salt, cayenne, a pinch of powdered sugar; beat well with a Dover egg beater and serve chilled.

Mayonnaise is prepared with the above ingredients in different measures with the addition of the yolk of an egg. Beat the egg yolk, add oil, a few drops at a time, beating until thick then add to a cupful of oil four to five tablespoonfuls of vinegar, adding the vinegar a few drops at a time until the mixture is very thick, then oil and vinegar may be added a teaspoonful or more at a time. Seasonings of mustard, powdered sugar, salt and cayenne are added to taste. The well-known boiled dressing may be varied by adding oil or cream or simply cook the beaten eggs with vinegar diluted to make it less acid. Beat well while cooking and then when wanted the seasoning may be added with whipped cream or other ingredients.

There are uncooked dressings galore which may be prepared from sour cream and are especially appetizing. Beat one-half cupful of cream until thick, add one-fourth teaspoonful of salt and three tablespoonfuls of vinegar very slowly, beating constantly. Add cayenne and mustard if desired.

Those Subnormal Children.

In an address to the physicians of Peoria Dr. Borden Veeder of Washington university, St. Louis, said: "The fallacy of setting arbitrary standards for the weight and height of children without reference to their parentage is a practice which should be abolished. In judging whether a child is above or below 'normal' the stature and weight of the parents should be considered.

ELOPERS SPENT NIGHT IN THE CORRY LOCKUP.

Passing their first honeymoon night in jail—and in separate cells at that—was the experience of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hopkins, who were released from custody in Corry, Thursday.

Paul Hopkins, age 24, of Corry last Wednesday was visiting at the home of Miss Margaret Schoening, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schoening, of No. 22 Railroad street. He went out with Miss Schoening ostensibly to take a walk and failed to return. Late Wednesday Mr. Schoening was summoned to the telephone and was startled to hear Mr. Hopkins announce that he had joined the family by marrying Miss Schoening before a Corry magistrate.

The father-in-law failed to appreciate the addition to the family and swore out a warrant for the newly-weds' arrest. The Corry chief of police served the warrants and gave the honeymooners two nice, clean cells in the lockup. After a conference with Mr. Schoening yesterday, however, they were released.—Bradford Era.

SMETHPORT MEN FIGURE IN VERY NARROW ESCAPE

County Detective J. J. Allison and A. J. Hyatt of Smethport, had a narrow escape from serious injury Wednesday night, November 22, when an automobile in which they were riding ran into a long steel stem that was being hauled on a wagon by John Sholander of Marvindale, Pa. Sholander was slightly hurt and was taken to Bradford where he was attended by a physician.

The accident occurred on the Bradford Smethport road near Row Hill. It is reported that the cart loaded with the stem carried no lights, and that the driver of the auto was unable to see any vehicle ahead. The force of the impact forced the stem through the radiator and the engine of the auto which was smashed and rendered useless for salvage.

Mr. Allison and Mr. Hyatt were thrown to the road but escaped without injury.

MISTAKEN FOR A RABBIT, HUNTER IS DECORATED

Howard Catlin of Harrisburg, son of Representative Clua W. Catlin, who arrived here last week with a number of friends for a hunting trip, was accidently shot Saturday morning while hunting on the flats near Turtle Point. He was standing in a clump of bushes when one of his companions shot at a rabbit in that direction, the shot taking effect in his head, arms and legs. Fifty-one shot took effect in his body. Fortunately, none of the wounds was serious, but they were extremely painful, and Catlin is recovering rapidly from them.—Port Allegany Reporter-Argus.

Port Allegheny—Franklin R. Winship, 74, died at his home in Benton, N. Y., Sunday, November 12. He was once a resident of Annin Creek. Mrs. Joel Cooper of Turtle Point, is a sister. The funeral was held the following Thursday.

Ridgway—The case of Howard Pierce of Johnsonburg, vs. the borough of Johnsonburg, damage suit, occupied two days at the special session of court. It was alleged Pierce while walking along a street in Johnsonburg collided with an awning which was too low injuring one of his eyes so that the sight has been permanently destroyed. Damage asked was $25,000. Pierce was awarded $2,000.

WEATHER PROPHET STICKS TO COLD WINTER OPINION

With the first real fall of snow coming, the name of Bill Altman, the Westline weather prophet, has been on the tongues of many who are anxious to know just what the outcome is going to be on his winter forecast. Bill in an interview with one of his close friends, assured him that what he predicted for the next few months was coming off without a doubt. In his forecast he stated that from the 15th of this month until the middle of December there would be plenty of rain but no severe cold, but to look out after the middle of next month then there would be lots of snow and cold weather for weeks to come. Bill has prepared for what he says is to follow from a weather point of view.

Johnsonburg—Graydon Platt, of Ridgway, is possibly the first man in the United States to have his ear bit by an airplane. He was driving south of Punxsutawney, when he noticed an airplane flying at a low elevation. He kept to the road at a moderate speed, but a tip of the wing struck the top of his car, cutting loose the supporting strap and letting the top flop down about his head. When he uncovered himself the airplane had lighted in a field, but he lost no time in arguing with the air pilot and continued his journey.

Bradford—Word has been received in Bradford of the death of Peter S. Kepler, one of the pioneer oil men of this section, which occurred Thursday in San Diago, Cal. He came to this city in 1878 and lived here until October 30, 1919, when he removed his family to San Diego. The deceased was well known among the oil men of Bradford.

Eldred—A car driven by Gerald Reynolds with Martin and Paul Murphy and their sister as passengers, rolled over a bank and fell about 20 feet onto the Shawmut railroad track last Tuesday evening when it failed to negotiate a sharp turn in the road west of town. Martin Murphy suffered a compound fracture of his left elbow, and Paul Murphy had both wrists broken. The other occupants, however, were uninjured.

DEMOCRATS DIVIDED

Commenting on the results of the recent election, over which Democrats of the rank and file variety express so much elation, the Washington correspondent for the International News Service says:

The Democrats have nearly as many wings in their party as a centipede has feet. How to whip them together in a cohesive mass that can be driven at entrenched Republicans and two years hence is a problem that is keeping many a Democratic pillow untouched these cool November nights.

There is the Wilson wing, composed of Democrats who still draw their political sustenance from the fountain at No. 2340 S. street—vigilant now and more watchful since the former president's Armistice day speech with its renewed bid for leadership.

There is the Tammany wing, composed of Democrats of wet leanings, numerically more powerful and cocky now since the smashing wet victories tossed up along the Atlantic seaboard, and drawing some strength, too, from Illinois, Missouri, Indiana and Pennsylvania.

There is another wing composed chiefly of Western and Mid-Western Democrats of rural persuasion who would like to see alliances with other parties—to the ultimate end that the Democratic party would be the "real progressive party" of the country—catering to the farmers, the middle men the little man.

Which, if any, of these groups is to control? Nobody knows—yet.

PUBLICITY: ITS VALUE.

In a talk to merchants on the real value of publicity and how the modern business man has come to understand and appreciate its value, editor of the Newspaper Enterprise Bulletin says:

"The newspaper of today is the most powerful medium of advertising on earth. In the old days the merchant may have thought he was contributing his bit as a public-spirited citizen when he carried a two-inch space in the village paper every week in the year and generally without change of copy. Possibly he was.

"But that is changed now. A new order has arrived. People read advertisements. Many find their greatest interest in looking over the advertising pages to get news that will save them money and take it from John D. Rockefeller the way to save your dollars is first to save your pennies.

"Advertisements today are right up to the minute. They are as fresh as the news of the world or the latest baseball score. Live merchants cater to live people and they know they must not alone be conducted up to the minute, but they must be some distance ahead. They must anticipate the wants of their customers.

"And they do. Turn to the advertisements in this paper right now. Just read what the merchants are offering. Notice the invitations for your to do business with them. Notice how attractively the advertisements are set up and how inviting they are.

"Do you know that some firms think so much of a style of type that they buy series of it just for their advertisements? You can never mistake R. Altman's advertisement. As soon as you see the open type you know it is Altman's advertisement without looking for the name. This is true of many firms.

"Business men—that is the successful ones—know advertising pays big returns. Unsuccessful men don't advertise because they are unsuccessful. That's the answer. Look over your town right now and pick out the big firms. They're the advertisers. Advertising is the tonic that puts dividends in the banks.

"Everybody reads advertisements today. Mr. Merchant, is your advertisement in this newspaper?"

OLD CROOKED TOE

BY HERMAN LORD

King of the bucks is Crooked-Toe,
Bigger than he they never grow,
Big as a well-grown Jersey cow,
Biggest of all deer, anyhow;
Crooked-Toe is a worth-while buck,
If you get him you'll be in luck.

Crooked-Toe, with his tawny hide
And antlers spreading far and wide,
Stands alone as the peer of all,
Outwitting hunters every fall;
Master mind in a master head,
We'll mourn when Crooked-Toe is dead.

Oft near the close of a summer's day,
I've watched Old Crooked Toe at play,
Or feeding there in a grassy place,
Descendant proud, of a well-born race;
Often too, in early fall,
But in season find him not at all.

Crooked-Toe is a wise old bird.
It seems that somehow he gets word
That danger-time is in December
And, being a somewhat easy member,
Hies himself to an unknown region,
Far removed from the hunter legion.

Crooked-Toe, proud ancient scion,
You're tough, you wouldn't make good frying,
But you have a head which sportsmen covet,
Horns immense, how they would love it!
How they would boast of wondrous skill,
If you should chance to be their kill.

Crooked-Toe, with your hoof so queer,
We're glad to have you roaming here,
Glad to have you hanging round,
May this long be your stamping ground;
As through life's maze you proudly go,
We honor thee, Old Crooked-Toe.

TRAVELERS CLUB WILL LOOK AFTER CHRISTMAS SEAL SALES THIS YEAR.

The annual sale of Christmas Seals, conducted by the McKean county branch of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis society, which in turn operates under the National Tuberculosis society, commences here, December 3, with notice of the day in the churches.

The Red Cross, previous to 1910, carried on the sale of seals, but since that year has withdrawn from active conduct of the sale, except that it lent to the Tuberculosis association its emblem and gave to the entire seal sale its moral and financial backing.

Mrs. R. C. Gleason is chairman of the Smethport committee, with Mrs. Claude Shattuck and Mrs. E. A. Studholme.

Health bonds and the seals may be bought. Some one will solicit you and this committee expects to conduct the sale if possible without duplication of solicitation, no school children being asked to canvass.

Buy all you can. Remember $400, approximately was raised last year, every dollar of which remained in Smethport. Through the Travelers Club committee, the community nurse, citizens who furnished auto service, local physicians and dentists, Smethport children have received medical attention and treatment. Operating physicians have made special low rates that ailing defective children might be helped. All this in the line of prevention of tuberculosis, the raising of the standard of the general health of the community.

ELISHA K. KANE BOWS TO GRIM DEFEAT, BUT SAYS HE LOST NOTHING.

In a letter to the editor of The Miner, received Monday, Elisha Kent Kane, commenting on the recent congressional election, says:

"Do you think your readers might be interested in figures showing what a thorough licking I received November 7? The vote for Congress in the 23rd district, reported from Harrisburg, reveals totals as follows:

"For Swoope, Republican and Socialist, 15,928; for Snyder, Democrat, 14,292; for Kane, Prohibitionist, 4,041.

"As far as getting elected is concerned, my campaign has been a flat failure; but as I spent no money except for the advocacy of my economic theories through your columns and by circular letters, I feel that neither my money nor time has been wasted. Although I did not gain what I sought, I have lost nothing."

Mr. Kane's attitude with respect to the result really is commendable. McKean county, however, showed her loyalty to him, insofar as it was partisanly possible, by the bestowal of 1,987 of the 4,041 votes credited to him.

BISHOP OVERS TALKS OF AFFAIRS IN AFRICA TO 2 LARGE AUDIENCES

Rev. W. H. Overs, Bishop of Liberia, Africa, addressed a large and appreciative congregation, both morning and evening, at St. Luke's Episcopal church, Sunday. The subject of his morning sermon was, "The Open Door," and dealt largely with the opportunities which are open to all of us if we but take advantage of them. The subject of his evening sermon was: "What is Africa, in the Year 1922?" Bishop Overs told of the wonderful progress that has been made in missionary work in that far-off land, of the industrial school, the agricultural school and the hospital, which have been in operation less than a year, of the great need of funds to buy equipment, etc., for his schools. He showed an unbounded enthusiasm for his work, a sure faith that all he desired for his people would in time be accomplished.

This is the eighth time Smethport people have had the pleasure of hearing Bishop Overs, who is an authority on African affairs and a very interesting speaker.

DEER HUNTING STARTS DECEMBER 1; HUNTERS REPORT LOTS OF GAME.

Deer are plentiful through the central part of the state, is the assertion of woodsmen and hunters who anticipate a fortnight of thrilling experiences as the opening of the 5-day deer season on December 1 draws near. In fact, it is reported, that deer have become so numerous in certain parts of the state that they are proving a nuisance.

If the snow holds it is expected that many deer will meet their fate during the 15 days of the big game season.—Kane Republican.

RELIC OF REVOLUTION IS FOUND NEAR OLEAN.

Olean, Nov. 27.—A cannon ball, possibly a relic of the Revolutionary war, was found in excavating on Seneca Heights, in the South side of the city. It is believed by some that the ball was dropped by troops of the colonies marching south across the foot of Mount Hermanee on the way to join Washington. Another theory was that Indians who roamed this part in the 18th century lost it.

There is no authentic record of Washington's troops passing over this section, but the old inhabitants tell of their forefathers relating tales of a division of the army passing over Mount Hermanee, marching south.

The spot on which the Seneca Heights subdivision is located was formerly an Indian village and it is likely that the braves picked up the ball and carried it home in the days, when Olean was virgin timber.

OLEAN PAIR THREATEN TO SHOOT STORE CLERK.

Olean, Nov. 27.—Revolvers in their hands, two workers in the Pennsylvania Railroad shops, in the strife of the union craftsmen, entered the billiard parlors of Charles Shoppelmaker, in West State street, yesterday are driving Shoemaker through a rear door, threatened to shoot James Petty, a clerk; according to charges.

H. N. Anderson, 22, a gang leader and Joseph Jedit 23, a machinist, were arrested. They are held on open charge. Anderson displayed a gun permit.

SMETHPORT BOYS SHOW METTLE ON GRIDIRON DURING 1922 SEASON.

The game with Eldred Hi last Saturday ended one of the most successful football seasons in the history of Smethport High School. Out of a schedule of 9 games played, Smethport won 6 and lost 3, defeating some of the best High and Prep school teams in this section of the state. Three veterans were lost to the team after the third game of the season, but new men filled their positions very capably. Four men will be lost by graduation, viz: Capt. Denning, Boylon, Bengs and Metzgar, but with a squad of 34 men out of this year, Coaches Livermore and Choate predict an even better team for next year.

The score 14-2 in last Saturday's game with Eldred does not indicate how one-sided the game was, Eldred making but two first downs during the entire game. Eldred was, however, somewhat crippled in a previous game with Alfred University Freshmen.

The official score of the nine games played shows: Smethport, 121; opponents, 57.

RELATIVE OF JOHN MAGNER ATTENDS FUNERAL FRIDAY; 2 COUSINS ARE LOCATED.

John Driscoll of Port Carbon, Pa., retired engineer, a cousin of the late John Magner, hermit, who died early last week, attended the Magner obsequies last Friday morning. Inquiry concerning relatives of deceased, made immediately following his death in the County home, resulted in locating three cousins in all—John Driscoll of Port Carbon, Mrs. Johanna Boyle and Mrs. Nora Boyle, both of Seek, Schuylkill county, Pa. Mr. Driscoll is said to be a cousin on his mother's side, while the Mesdames Boyle, who married brothers, are related through their father. Mr. Driscoll, who is quite an aged man, is quoted as saying that he intended to visit Magner last fall, but that illness prevented.

BANK DEPOSITS SHOW BIG GAIN PAST YEAR.

Depositors in Pennsylvania's trust companies, state banks, savings banks, private banks and national banks under the supervision of the State Banking department jumped more than a half million in number between April 4 and October 18, according to a summary of the reports of the institutions, as of the latter date, made public by Peter C. Cameron, commissioner of banking. The number is given as 1,187,583 against 3,641,350 in April and 3,529,361 on September 30, 1921. In the same period deposits rose more than a billion, the figure for last month being $4,762,673,207. Reports were made by 367 trust companies, 278 banks, ten savings banks, 103 private banks and 79 national banks, a total of 837 against 824 in April. Trust companies and national banks under state supervision increased in that period.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME; FAMILY IN SAD PLIGHT.

A small house on the Kinzua road, outside the city limits of Kane occupied by Gust Gibson and family, was burned to the ground Saturday night, leaving the family of twelve without clothing or household furniture and in immediate need of relief. The cause of the fire is unknown, but the loss is complete.

The plight of the family was announced from almost every church pulpit in Kane Sunday. There are a mother and family of ten children ranging in age from 6 to 23 years in immediate need. The appeal has met with some response and a dwelling has been secured for the family. The family is self supporting under ordinary conditions and temporary relief to get them on their feet is all that is necessary.

TALKS TO PUPILS.

Evangelist K. L. Kramer, who is conducting a religious revival at the First Baptist church, addressed the High school pupils Wednesday morning on "Why America Should be Thankful," supplementing that which was voted an especially fine patriotic appeal by several selections on the trombone, in which he revealed himself a musical master. Rev. Mr. Reneks, who accompanied the evangelist, also made a few appropriate remarks.

A county seat Republican newspaper published in a Republican county means a large circulation and excellent advertising value.

MOTOR RAIL CAR FAILS IN A SECOND TRY-OUT.

The new motor rail car on the Kushequa railroad was given another tryout early this week, but owing to continued ill success following several alterations, the car was returned to Kushequa for further overhauling. A master mechanic in the employ of the White Motor company will take charge of the work having to do with alterations to the car, next week. In the event another try-out proves unsuccessful, the car will not be accepted by the Kushequa management.

POMONA GRANGE MEET.

Pomona Grange will meet at Farmers Valley, Wednesday, December 6, for the election of officers and the transaction of other important business. Features of the meeting will be an address by Donald Gray of State College on Winter Management of Poultry and a summary of the McKean County Farm Bureau work for the past year, by P. S. Crossman, bureau manager.

W. P. WALSH ILL.

Mr. W. P. Walsh of the Smethport Water company, who was taken to the Bradford hospital the past week, suffering from abdominal trouble, was brought to his home Wednesday, somewhat improved. His many friends join in the hope of a speedy recovery.

SKILLED WORKMEN BUSY.

With the new acetone factory so far completed that workmen are wiring the structure for electricity, with the new Masonic temple almost completed, and with the Grange Bank undergoing radical alterations, skilled workmen in Smethport manage to keep quite busy these winter days.

TURTLE POINT

Hunting seems to be the fad of late and I reckon this snow will set all the men wild who have a gun.

Looks as though winter had set in for sure.

Mr. Ford, who has been working for Dan Lane, moved into Turtle Point yesterday afternoon into the Knapp house.

Cider making, I guess is a thing of the past.

H. Harland has struck lots of water in the new well he has been drilling at his new home.

Some of the Bradford boys have been over hunting recently.

Ed. McGill was seen on our streets, Tuesday.

The Grange met Saturday night with eight members to elect officers. Am afraid they will have to get out and do some work or we won't have any Grange very long.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Hughes and Mrs. Ed. McGill were callers at N. W. Taylor's Sunday last.

NORWICH AND BETULA.

Mr. Ray Noran, of Norwich, is spending a short time in Meadville as the guest of Dr. Winslow, formerly of Norwich.

In a very short time the Potato Creek R. R. Co. intend taking up the rails on their railroad between Norwich and Keating Summit, and abandoning the right of way. The balance of the road, between Norwich and Hamlin, will remain in operation as usual.

Numerous bear and deer have been seen in the vicinity of Norwich and Betula this fall. To date three bear have fallen to the guns of the sportsmen, the first one to Claude Shattuck of Smethport, and Frank Oviatt and Peter Knickerbocker, of Betula. Milo Oviatt, of Betula, killed a two hundred pounder, and Leland Burdick of Betula, got one slightly smaller.

Several members of the Crosby Ladies' Aid called on Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Bulley at their home in Betula last Wednesday, where they spent a very pleasant afternoon.

COLEGROVE ITEMS

Mr. [illegible] Peterson, of Hamlin, engineer for the United Natural Gas Co., has purchased the property occupied by Mr. Emig at Colegrove, and will shortly take up his residence there.

Mr. E. L. Gallup, with the assistance of Mr. John Abbey, has gotten out a quantity of hemlock logs on his farm at Colegrove, which he intends to have sawn into lumber this winter. Mr. Gallup is going to construct a large, up-to-date modern barn next spring.

Mrs. B. W. Heinemann of Colegrove, has returned home from Philadelphia, where she was attending the world convention of the W. C. T. U.

ALL THINGS BEAUTIFUL.

All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful—
The Lord God made them all.

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings—
He made their glowing colors,
He made their tiny wings.

The purple-headed mountain,
The river running by,
The morning and the sunset
That lighteth up the sky.

The tall trees in the greenwood,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruit in the garden—
He made them every one.

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips, that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who hath made all things well.

The Surety of Purity

There are no miracles in cooking. What goes into the food must inevitably come out.

Even the baking perfection that results from the use of Royal Baking Powder is no miracle.

It is simply the result of absolute purity entering the food—and emerging again.

Royal is made from Cream of Tartar derived from grapes.

Corn Stover.

When dry enough should be protected from the weather. Two months out in the field will cause a loss of 45 per cent of the total dry material and about 65 per cent of the total dry matter and about 65 per cent of the protein in the stover.

Keeping Poultry Records.

The poultryman should have some system of keeping accounts. A record of the daily egg production, the amount of grain and mash feed, cost of equipment, etc., is valuable knowledge in figuring income, outgo, and net profits. Too many poultrymen have only a vague idea of these essential matters.

Feeding Dairy Cows.

Regularity of feeding is of greater importance than time of feeding. The dairy cow should have regular meal hours. More roughage will be consumed if it is fed two or three times a day instead of only once.

Wintering Livestock.

The time is here for the preparation of winter quarters for the farm stock. It is poor management to let the animals stand out behind a fence row, all huddled up, looking for shelter and something to eat. Get them inside and give them the feed they deserve. Livestock cannot be successfully raised on fresh air and scenery alone.

Grain Moths.

Grain Moths can be more easily controlled in the bin than in the new. If the thing has been postponed, plan to finish it without delay.

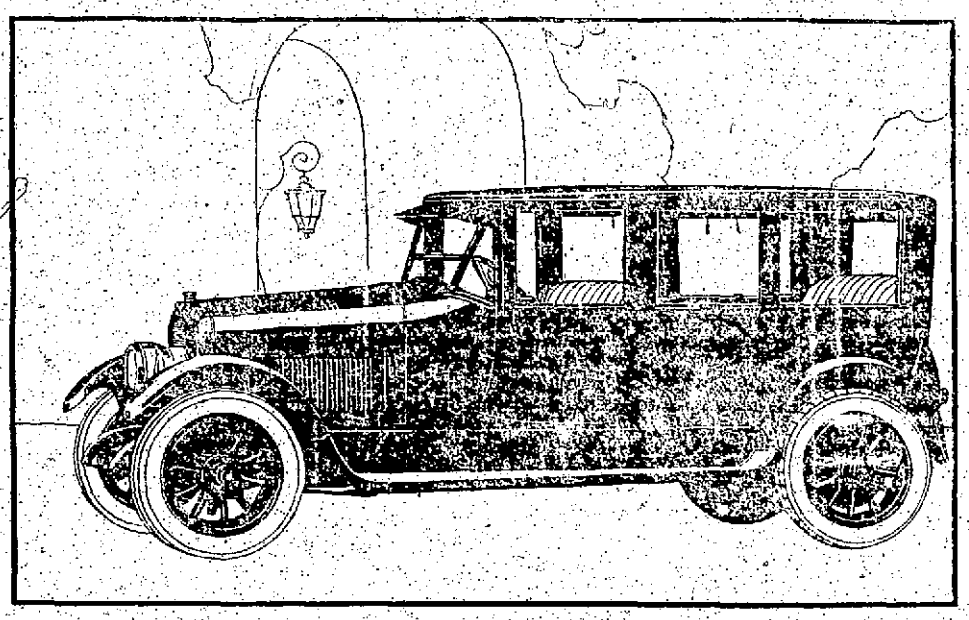
"It costs so little to drive a Marmon"



Now MARMON ALL-YEAR CARS: Sedans, Coupes, etc.—Advanced Styles

One glance at the beautiful Marmon enclosed cars and you realize their advanced style. Then as you examine them your wonder grows at the masterly combination of art and engineering.

The reason for such successful blending is this: Marmon bodies are designed and built by Marmon so as to insure unity with the chassis. Marmons are designed as a whole, not as two separate units. Note the lowness. Note the added roominess.

Sit inside. Observe how Marmon designers have brought unobstructed vision. Here indeed are touring sedans! The coupe, too, has the open effect of a roadster. Examine the other advancements and refinements. Never in all the history of building fine cars have there been such wonderful Marmons.

Behind all this beauty is sturdiness, dependability. And this means economy in maintenance, in operation. No fine cars costs so little to operate. A recent survey of hundreds of Marmons throughout the nation shows the average maintenance cost to be only $4.71 per month. No wonder Marmon owners agree that to drive a Marmon means the finest form of transportation at the lowest cost per mile.

We invite you to inspect these new Marmon enclosed cars. They are now on display.
